

Wide Sky © 2011, Cynthia R. Crossen

You are my wide sky, G - C
Fireflies on a windy night, Eb - C
And like golden moonlight, G - C
 Evening primroses burst open, Eb - C
 Hummingbird moth sucks deeply F - D
 The sweetness of their nectar, G - F - Eb - D
And you are my wide sky. G - C - Eb

You are my wide sky, G - C
Raindrops from a brightening light Eb - C
Kiss cool on my skin tonight, G - C
 Small creatures scurry to safety, Eb - C
 Milkweed fragrance suffuses F - D
 The deep green of my garden, G - F - Eb - D
And you are my wide sky. G - C - Eb

You are my wide sky, G - C

Frogs sing to the long twilight Eb - C
On this summer solstice night, G - C
 I am alone and not lonely, Eb - C
 Flowers and fireflies hold me, F - D
 Warm earth is my home now G - F - Eb - D
And you are my wide sky, G - C - Eb
This twilight. F
