Athena, Athena,
Athena, Athena, Athena,
Athena, Athena, Athena,
Guardian of justice, bearer of wisdom,
Of a new vision you speak.

We shall work for change, we shall work for peace,
We shall find our wisdom in the dreams we weave.

We shall work for change, we shall work for peace,
We shall find our wisdom in the dreams we weave.

Athena, help us weave a new dream.

We will plant olive trees in the desert,
We will plant olive trees in the desert,
We will use the riches of the earth wisely.

We will plant olive trees in the desert,
We will plant olive trees in the desert,
We will use the riches of the earth wisely.

We shall end all hunger, we shall end all war,
We shall bless our children with justice for all.

We shall end all hunger, we shall end all war,
We shall bless our children with justice for all.

We shall end all hunger, we shall end all war,
We shall bless our children with justice for all.

Athena, Athena, Athena,
Athena, Athena, Athena,
Bearer of wisdom, teacher of vision,
Help us find a path to peace.
