

Love Has Brought You Home

© 2005 Cynthia R. Crossen

A Roots entwining D Together, you will grow,
A E A
And love's sweet waters around you will flow,
A D A
Wind blows through your branches Beneath the sky's blue dome,
A E A
Stars sing like angels, For love has brought you home.

D
Love, a candle in the window,
A
When the night is long,
A E
Love, a heart that shines for you
D E
And always brings you home,

A D A
No more aching heart, No more alone,
A E A
No more wayfaring stranger, For love has brought you home.

Look now into these eyes of love alight for you,
And look now into this heart that knows you well and true,
And all around you, beloved kindred ones
Warm you and welcome you
For love has brought you home.

Chorus

Down by the river, You dance beneath the moon,
Shine on together, For love has brought you home.

Chorus

Down by the river, You dance beneath the moon,
Shine on together, For love has brought you home.

Shine on together,
For love has brought you home.
