

Don't Squish the Jellyfish © 2015, Cynthia R. Crossen

Don't squish the jellyfish, Em - D - Em

It's just doin' its thing, D - Em - D - Em

Don't squish the jellyfish, Em - D - Em

If you mess with a jelly, C - Em

Whoa Nellie, I tell'ye, C - Em

Better watch out for that sting, B7 - C

Watch out for that sting! B7 - Em

Swimmin' in the ocean is so sweet, C - G - C - G

'Til somethin' squishes beneath your feet, D - Em

Or streaming tentacles brush your skin, D - Em - D - Em

You don't want to go where the jellyfish has been! B7

It's a shocking fact we can't explain, C - G - C - G

But a jellyfish -- it has no brain, D - Em

Who needs to think? It's overrated, D - Em - D - Em

For 500 million years they've dominated, so B7 ... Chorus

They don't need to know the north from the south, C - G - C - G

Eating and its opposite -- it's all one mouth, D - Em

They don't need to know the left from the right, D - Em - D - Em

Radial symmetry is dynamite! B7

They eat those little fishies, eat those little shrimp, C - G - C - G

Jellyfish ain't no vegetarians, D - Em

They got that sumpin' sumpin', they got that spark, D - Em - D - Em

It's bioluminescence, they glow in the dark! so B7 ... Chorus

Ocean eutrophication? No alarm, C - G - C - G

That just helps the jellyfish swarm, D - Em

Ocean temps risin' -- bring it on! D - Em - D - Em

The warmer the better for jellyfish spawn, B7

So it's a very good thing that in China and Japan, C - G - C - G

Jellyfish is a delicacy in great demand, D - Em

All the world over it's a tasty treat, D - Em - D - Em

But it's not really something we would care to eat! so B7 ... Chorus

Inspiration struck at Holden Beach, with Dear Ones singing and stomping together on the sunset deck (Carol had gotten a sting earlier in the week).
