

Kaleidoscope of Dreams © 2016, Cynthia R. Crossen capo on 2nd fret

We all play in the make-believe, A
In the make-believe we play, E
And there's no loss in the forms that pass, A - E
Though the forms all pass away, D - A
And this is how we amuse ourselves in eternity, D - A
Here in the now, we invent this fantastical reality, D - A
Nothing is as it seems, E
In this kaleidoscope of dreams. D - A

Here we play in the mystery, A - Em
In the mystery we play, Dm - A
First we hide, and then we're found, A - E
And then we hide again, D - A
Seeking the spark hidden so well in multiplicity, D - Dm - A
Here in the dark, it's such a lark, D - A
To find our own divinity, E

Time seems to turn, Dm - A
Though it might be our very own hand that does the turning, Dm - A - Em
And we might look through ten thousand eyes Em - D - Dm
To find our own heart's yearning, A - Em - D
It's hidden it seems, D - Dm

In shadows and schemes, Dm - E
Rainbows and moonbeams, E - D
It all glitters and gleams, D - A
We don't know what it means, A - E
But we love all these things, E
The adventure it brings, E - D
The soul that it sings, D - A
To become human beings A - E

In this kaleidoscope of dreams. D - A
